SOCIETY LAST WEEK NOW THE LEADERS OF FASHION SPENT THEIR TIME.

SMALL ENTERTAINMENTS.

Elaborate Preparations for the Joint Celebration of Washington's Birthday and the Inauguration of President Davis-Receptions, &c.

of shot an arrow into the air; It fell to earth I know not where."

Oh! the arrows-the swift-winged arwhich speed from countless bows! singed, alast with the poison of the how is bent. Then with every to cheering elixir of love. Let blossom with the flowers of and bear the fruit of charity. e than kindness and charity. dip it into mirth? Lift the bow aw it to the full arm's length. force which will take it brough the years, singing as it s, deeds, frowns, smiles, are and they sink deep in the lives of our fellow-beings, is the smallest of them all, ery lightness takes it farthest. ember that even in nge that is fretful and restless and mend it somewhat if we always look cheery."

Belle Perkins entertained in honor Miss Pairchild and Miss Curtis, of on Monday afternoon. Among cests were Mrs. Philip A. Bruce, W. W. Archer, Mrs. Moncure Per-Miss Fairchild, Miss Curtis, Miss is, Miss Fairchild, Miss Curtis, Miss the Pleasants; Miss Harrison, of Branci, Miss Alice Carpenter, Miss Delia mpkins, Miss Annie Rose Walker, Miss mise Allan Mayo, Miss Mary Mayo, as Roy Ellerson; Messrs, William Skeller, Eugene Massie, John Young, Rosell Page, Madison Scott, James W. Aves, James Moncure, and Murray Dill.

A fortunate twelve were most pleasant-entertained by Mrs. Charles E. Doyle day afternoon at a game of progressive hre. The prizes were sliver, dainty, pretty, and the punch bowl was pre-The guests of honor were Rufus Gillette, of Illinois, and Miss Clarke. The others present were E. D. Hotchkiss, Mrs. Rufus War-Mrs. John Purcell, Mrs. J. A. White, George Stephens, Mrs. Harry Fra-Mrs. James Harvie, Mrs. C. W. P. ck, and Miss Julia Grant.

ut twenty young girls vote Friday ing, February 5th, one of the hap-in their experience. They were that ing the guests at supper of Misses and Julia Moore, whose graceful ality will not soon be forgotten.
present were Misses Carrie Arm.
Gladys Frasier, Bessie Frasier, Tompkins, Nellie Davenport, Laura Mamie Davenport, Helen Lathrop, Henningham Lyons; Jones, of Iron Gate, Va.; Sophia Lillie Keim, Susie McGuire, Louise Carle Minor, and Mary and

ladies of the Confederate Memoruary as the date for their "Cond with the memory of those eat representatives of constituights-Washington and Davis. ems peculiarly appropriate that outd have chosen as the manner trating this day a reception by regents and officers of the Con-Memorial Literary Society, as-y General Dabney H. Maury; Mrs. E. Pickett, Miss Mildred Lee, and cuts of the Commanusalth Club ts of the Commonwealth Club ladies; the reception to be folby the singing of old Confedengs—such as "Dixle" and "The Blue Fiag." Even those requestsing can do so with a sympa-ich will be an added charm to the Mrs. Alice Swain Hun-Arthur Scrivenor, Mr. and O'B. Cowardin, Mrs. Decatur Mrs. C. D. Langhorne, the Old a Sextette, and other well-kagwa lend their ald to the pleasure ce of Mrs. Pickett will inoldiers, Pickett Camp, who will ent in large numbers cond floor of the club will be own open to the guests. s' entrance (side door) there will arch, draped with Confederate Those receiving will be in full dress, but no exaction is made uests-either street- or eveningng admissible. The hours will 8 to 11, and the same plan in on the occasion of the "Mistle-" Holders of invitations can lekets from any member of the rate Memorial Literary Society, George M. West's bookstore.

number of tickets is limited. Edmund Strudwick gave a tea by evening, which, for graceful lity with every beautiful accomdeserves to be remembered as most delightful of the season. udwick wore white silk, with ushes, gowned simply, a regal stative of a school of gentle which 'twas best of fortunes to Among the guests, including thers, were Mrs. John Harrison azard, Mrs. Thomas Bolling, Mrs. on Hodges, Mrs. Polteaux Robin-Thomas Rutherfoord, M Pearson, Mrs. E. A. Sa William L. Royall, Mrs. hkiss, Mrs. Luther Dawson, in Lightfoot, Mrs. Funston. Luther Dawson, Bentley, Mrs. William Warner Moore, Mrs.

The Woman, The Man,

She was a good woman. He loved her. She was his wife. The pie was good; his wife made it; he ate it. But the pie disagreed with him, and he disagreed with his wife. Now he takes a pill after pie and is happy. So is his wife. The pill he takes is Ayer's. Moral: Avoid dyspepsia by using Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

Celebrated for its great leavening strength and healthfulness. Assures the food against alum and all forms of aduleration common to the cheap brands. ROYAL BAKING-POWDER COMPANY.

Robert B. Munford, Mrs. Robins, Mrs. Randolph Tatum, Mrs. Robins, Mrs. Randolph Tatum, Mrs. James Pleasants, Mrs. John Coke, Mrs. John Nolting, Mrs. Churchill Young, Mrs. E. C. Minor, Mrs. William Archer, Mrs. Moncure Perkins, Mrs. Howard Hoge, Mrs. Frances Deane Williams, Mrs. Malvern C. Patterson, Mrs. Archie Patterson, Misses Mary Lyons, Georgie Elaykenship, Pre-Mary Lyons, Georgie Elaykenship, Pre-Lyons, Georgie Blankenship, Preclous Moore, Virginia Hayes, Adele Williams, Kate Harris, Weddell, Lizzie Townes, Lelia Tatum, Maury, Flossie Talbott, Annie Munford Merrill, Camm, Bossie Wicht. Bessle Wight, Saunders, Marian Robins, Tyler, Harrison, Marlan Waller; Talla-ferro, of Gloucester, and Kennon, of Powhatan.

The Tuesday german was led last week by Mr. W. S. P. Mayo. The at-tendance was large, and few germans this winter have been more heartily

Among the dancers were many wisitors to the city, including Misses Shipp, of Lexington; Elizabeth Taylor, of Norfolk; Palmer, of Norfolk; Shafer, of New Jersey; Rogers, of Norfolk; Josephine Dixon, of Buffalo; Linch, of Baltimore; Corke, of Hanover, and Nash, of Norfolk. Richmond was represented by the chaperons—Mesdames Austin Brockenborough, Charles Evelyn Smith. Robert Powers, Ruffin—and the following young ladies and gentlemen: Eleanor Bosher, Annie Lee Alfriend, Lelia Grey Helen Lea, Florence Wilson, Carrie Coleman, Nina Randolph, Marianne Meade, Emsio Pegram, Mabel Walker, Mary Hill, Mary Binford, Virginia Hayes, Eleanor Bosher, Ella Jackson, Kathleen Anderson, Louise Allan Mayo, May Lyons Mayo, Maude Stokes, Madeline English, Mary McCaw, Delia Tompkins, Halife and Rachel Cooke; Messrs, Branan, Blankenship, Cooke, Harrison, Binford, Quaries, Anderson, Hobson, Young, Currie, Ransom, Hawes, Alfriend, Mayo, and others. Helen Lea, Florence Wilson, Carrie Cole

To-morrow afternoon, beginning at 4:45 o'clock, the Woman's Club will spend "An Hour with Beethoven," under the direction of Mrs. J. Smith Brockenborough. The programme will consist of a short analysis of "Beethoven's Second Symphony," followed by the rendition of that symphony upon two planos, by Miss Nolting, Miss Guillaume, Mrs. Brokenborough, and Mr. Hahr. The analysis and execution of Beethoven's third concerto will conclude the hour with that great composer, Mr. J. hour with that great composer, Mr. J. C. Hahr, and Master John Powell will play the concerto, and more skilled per-formers would have been hard to select.

At the meeting of the Colonial Dames, held at the Young Men's Christian Association rooms, on Wednesday last, there were several new members elected, and much business disposed of The school-girl "prize paper," written by Miss Annie Wise Mayo, was read by Mrs. James Lyons, and elicited much well-deserved praise for the young writer. At the reception, following the board meeting, there were present, among mary society, in selecting the 22d mary as the date for their "ConTea," call attention to a day historical importance, and tenassociations—a day doubly dear southern people, as inseparably d with the memory of those of these with the memory of those of these with the memory of those of the second with the Charles Seiden, Mrs. Reginald Gilliam, Mrs. Herbert Claiborne, Mrs. Bianton, Mrs. Philip A. Bruce, Mrs. William D. Thomas, Mrs. Ball, Miss Annie Rose Walker, and the Misses Mayo.

> Pretty girls, good music, dainty refreshments, and a good cause are a happy combination. All these met in the tea given by the young ladies of Dr. Hoge's church Thursday night, and the undertaking, as it deserved, was a bright

Mrs. Reginald Gilham entertained a party of friends, in honor of Miss Fair-child, and Miss Curtis, of Boston, Tues-The decorations were especially dainty and pretty, consisting, as they did, of beautiful ferns.

The silver ten given at the residence of Rev. J. J. Gravatt, No. 911 Park avenue, Thursday evening, was largely attended, and most enjoyable. Every accessory in way of decoration and refreshments was in evidence, and the entertainment programme was unusually good. The recitations by Miss Ethel Slater and Miss Lulie Dreer Barham were features worthy of especial mention, and the musical numbers rendered by Miss Julia Teller, Mr. Conway Gordon, and Mr. Herbert Phillips were, indeed, excellent.

The parlors of the Albemarle Club have been kindly offered to the Rose-mary Circulating Library Committee for a musical reception to be held there on Tuesday, February 15th, from 5 to 8

A most attractive programme has been arranged, and all who attend will be assured, for the small outlay of 25 cents, of a delightful afternoon, besides the added satisfaction which comes from the consciousness of having aided in a worthy

Mrs. T. William Pemberton entertained her Sunday-school class at a "Pink Luncheon" on Saturday. The scene was a pretty one, no color being so becoming or so adaptable to beautiful decoration. or so adaptable to beautiful decoration.
All that carnations, ribbons, and roses could do to carry out the color design was brought into play, and the effect was lovely. Those present were: Misses Meade Burwell, Mary Burford, Bessie Gallie, Mary Grange, Grang, Parrish Catlin, Mary Carrington, Grace Parrish, Flossie Parrish, Emma Lorraine, Gena Newman, Maggle Williams, Lucle Hudson, and Mrs. George Gibson.

The Junior Aid Society of St. John's church gave a very successful "Pound Party" in the lecture-room of the church on Friday afternoon, the proceeds of which, both in "pennies" and "pounds" went to the poor.

Miss Fairchild, of Boston, who is a Miss Fairchild, of Boston, who is a guest of Mrs. Adair Pleasants, lectured before the Woman's Club Thursday, on "The Kindergarten." She is ardently interested in the subject, and spoke with directness and force of the system, its growth, its worth, and the probability of its ultimate, palveral, adoraton. The its ultimate universal adoption. The keenest interest was manifested in the subject, as explained delightfully by Miss Fairchild. The guests of the speak Fairchild. The guests of the speaker were the kindergarten teachers of Richmond-Miss Scott, Miss Luile Evans, Miss E. O. Robinson Miss Stevenson, Miss G. C. West, Miss Menzel, Miss Research Miss Menzel, Miss Menze Fanny Pittman; chairman's guests—Miss Pleasants, Mrs. W. W. Archer, Mrs. James Lyons, Miss Carrie Minor, Mrs. Andrew Christian. Mrs. E. C. Minor, was chairman of the evening, and introduced the speaker in a few bright words. After the lecture, ten was served by Miss Winston, Miss Guillaume, Miss Williams, and Miss Madge Friedley. The cotillon to be given Thursday, the 18th, by Major Ginter, at the Jefferson Hotel, is the theme of greatest interest among the young fashionable element. It will be given in honor of his niece.

OVERRATED THE TOWER,

& OVERRATED

THE CORNER STORE.

We do not exaggerate price or value in our advertisement. When we say the price of an article we mean it. To-morrow (Monday) you will find lots of bargains in every department.

Dress Goods.

There is no store in Richmond showing such a line of fine Spring Dress goods as we are-Dress Goods to suit everybody's taste.

59 pieces of Fancy Cheviot, made to retail at 39c., but we will sell them to-morrow at 25c.

100 pieces of Fancy Mixed Scotch Effect, 44-inch Vigoreaux Suiting, the very thing for tailor-made suits, cannot be matched at 85c., but we were lucky to boy 75 dif-ferent patterns to sell them at 69c.

$1.25 Selected Mixed Goods, silk and wool, 75c.

7 pieces of Raised Check Suiting, you will see them in some stores at @c., but we are going to sell them at @c. 25 pieces of Fancy Dress Goods, imita-tion of the Vigoreaux Suiting. You will find several stores making a big to do over them at 50c., but we are going to sell them Monday for 42c.

$1 Spring Covet Cloth, left from last sea-son, 54 inches wide, only 3 pieces left, to close them out we sell them for 48c. 50c. Cloth, in all colors, 50 inches wide, when you see them you will want to know why we are selling them for 25c. 60c. Mexican Cloth, Black and White stripe, We will have to limit you in the quantity, as we want everybody to get a show. Just think what we are selling this for—only 29c.

Black Goods.

50-lpch Black Cloth, 25c, 1 piece of Black Serge, slightly damaged on the edge, sold for 48c., to-morrow 25c, 44-inch Serge, never sold less than 85c., to-morrow for 50c. 81 Black Sicilian, 50c. To-morrow you will find several dress patterns of Black Goods, from 5- to 8-yard lengths, at a surprising price.

Silks.

3 pieces of China Silk, 31-inch, never sold less than 68c., to-morrow for 3ic.
7 patterns of those Drapery Silks, 31 inches wide, sold for 75c., now 39c.
Wash Silks, 14c. yard.
27-inch Black Satin Rhadama, a big argain at $1.35, but we sell it to-morrow or $1.

or $1.
24-inch Black Faille, $1.55 value, for $1.
$1 Black Satin Rhadama, &c.
Black Velodure, the newest thing for kirts, only 3 skirt patterns, to close out at $1. $1 Persian Silks, 50c. 95c. Moire Velour, evening shades, 45c. 24-inch Figured China Silks, you cannot match them at $1; we will sell them tomorrow at 50c. $1 and $1.25 Colored Plushes, a few yards left, to close out at 19c.

Kid Gloves.

A new line of Spring Gloves, in all the new spring shades, 75c, and $1. Kid Gloves, in all the new evening shades, 12-button to 24-button, $1.50 to $3.25 a pair.

White Goods.

To-morrow (Monday) we will open a new line of White Goods, Just think, the lust lot we received was two weeks ago, and every one remarked that they have bought enough White Goods to supply Richmond, but it was not enough to supply the demand, so we had to telegraph for more, and you will find the prices much cheaper than the last lot.

8c. White India Linen, 27 inches wide, 5c. 12c. White India Linen, 8 1-3c.

14c. White India Linen, 10c.

20c. White Apron Muslin, 40 inches wide, 2 1-3c.

18c. Persian Lawn, 32 inches wide, 12 1-2c.
25c. White Organdie, 17c.
75c. White Grenadine, 50c.
50c. Fleece-Lined Pique, the very thing for infants' spring coats, 25c.
27 1-2c. Colored Organdie, 21c.
12 1-2c. Check Muslin, 8 1-3c.
16 2-3c. Fine Check Dimity, 12 1-2c.
(6) pieces Real Imported Long Cloth, never sold less than $1.50; to-morrow for
$1.25. 18c. Persian Lawn, 32 inches wide, 121-2c.

Laces.

Our Lace Counter is always crowded with buyers; there has been such a demand in that department, and we were compelled to duplicate the order for three times the quantity. To-morrow you will find the biggest bargain from the Lace Department that was ever held in Richmond.

Torchon Lace, 3-4 inch wide, 1c. Torchon Lace, 1 inch wide, 1 3-4c. Torchon Lace, 2 inches wide, 2c. Torchon Lace, 2 1-2 inches wide, 12 1-2c. Oriental, 8 1-3c.

12 1-2c. Oriental, 8 1-3c.
25c. Oriental, 12 1-2c.
25c. Oriental, 12 1-2c.
For the new designs in laces see our case in the front of the store.
Hamburg sale will commence to-morrow. The reason we could not mention the prices and styles, it would be so late as to keep this ad, from going to press, but the prices will surprise you.

Domestics.

1-yard-wide Unbleached Cotton, 3 1-4c. ldc. Imitation Foulard Silk, 6 1-4c. (SEE OUR WINDOW ON THE RIGHT.) 1 piece Black Gingham, 12 1-2c. quality, 5c. Cheese Cloth, 2c.

12 1-2c. Crepe Cloth, 5c.
12 1-2c. Frannellettes, no remnants, 5c.
12 1-2c. Tearledown, 8 1-3c.
12 1-2c. Dark Ginghams, 5c.
12 1-2c. Dark Ginghams, 5c.
12 1-2c. Silkoline Drapery, 7c.
12 1-2c. Satine Figured Crepon, 6 1-4c.
15c. French Outing, Light shades, 9c.
10c. Cretonne, 5c.

10c, Cretonne, 5c. 12 1-2c. Percales, 6 1-4c.

Flannels. •

16 2-3c. Wool Flannel, 12 1-2c. 20c. All-Wool Flannel, 16 2-3c. 35c. Flannel, 25c.

Carpets.

Our Carpet stock is too large for this time of the year. We have marked them down, so that the prices will compel them to go.

Rugs and Druggets.

If you need a Rug or Drugget, don't fail to visit this department, as you will find our prices much less than they cost to be manufactured.

Notions and Toilet Articles

These are small things, and you are liable to forget them, but these prices will not let you forget: 10c. Covered Bones, 1c. 20c. box Stove Polish, 1c. 25c. Colgate's Perfume, 12 1-2c, ounce.

Palm Scap, 25c. for a dozen cakes. 20c. box Talcum Powder, 5c.

Tetlow's Face Powder, 3c. a box. 25c, bottle Bay Rum. 10c. Package Colgate's Sachet Powder, 10c. Package Colgate's Sachet Powdic. a package.

50c. Pure Castile Soap, 11c. a pound.
1 dozen Shoe Laces, 5c.
Embroidery Silk, 3c. a dozen.
Initial Letters, 3 dozen for 5c.
Knitting Silk, sells 20c. a spool, 5c.
25c. Hand Mirror, silver frame, 12c.
Hooks and Eyes, 1c. for 2 dozen.
1 dozen Rubber Hair-Pins, 10c.
15c. Needle-Case, 6 packages, 3c.
8c. box Mourning Pins, 2c.
Mourning Veil-Pins, 3 dozen for 5c.
Lic. box Picture Wire, 25 yards, 8c.

Ladies' Muslin Underwear

You will find only two articles in this advertisement, but this does not tell the story how we are selling Ladies' Muslin Underwear. 50c. Gowns, 36c.

Men's Furnishings.

$1 Fancy Shirts, with link cuffs, 49c. $1 Pearl Shirts, 75c.

Ties, 10c. Colored-Bordered Handkerchiefs, 2c. Pure Linen-Bosom Shirts, reinforced front and back, 49c. How about these $2 Embroidery Shirts

The Odds and Ends Counter.

We have placed a counter on the third floor called the Odds and Ends Counter for bargains. Don't fail to see the articles on that counter. $1 Gentlemen's Percale Shirts, 50c. $1 Ladies' Balmoral Skirts, 25c. $1.25 Ladies' Balmoral Skirts, 50c.

Gentlemen's $1.25 Underwear, 75c. 50c. Canton-Flannel Drawers, 25c. 62 1-2c. Underwear, plain and fleece lined, 35c.

$1.25 Boys' Sults, 69c. 20c. Shelf Lace, 4c. 25c. Table Cil-Cloth, 10c.

$1.50 Flannel Waists (boys'), 50c. 50c. Boys' Percale Walsts, 25c. 25c. Boys' Walsts, 10c.

Hosiery.

25c. Children's Ribbed Hose, 10c. 25c. Ladles' Black Hose, 17c.

School Supplies.

3c. Pads, 2 for 1c. 5c. Pads, 2 for 5c. Lead Pencils, 7c. a dozen.

Umbrellas.

To-morrow you will find four of the greatest bargains in Umbrellas that were ever held in Richmond:
79c. Umbrellas, 43c.
Gentlemen's 93c. Steel-Rod Umbrellas,

$1.50 Steel-Rod Umbrellas, $1.

Baby-Carriages.

We are the agents for the Thayer Carriage. There is none better made in the United States. Every carriage is guaranteed for one year. If you need a carriage or expect to buy, pay a visit to our Carriage Department. Prices ranging from $5 to $45.

201 and 203 JULIUS SYCLE & SON, EAST

Mrs. A. Oldfield Brown, of New 10th and the pleasure-seekers were and will, undoubtedly, be one of the most elegant entertainments of the win-

The Seven Little Workers' Society of Mrs. gave a tea at No. 119 south First street. Street. Friday evening, under the direction of Mrs. Dora Dickens, which was in every Mrs. Mrs. Dora Dickens, which was in every respect a marked success. A new and unique feature of the entertainment was what is known as "The New Woman," who made her appearance for the first time in this city on that occasion, and must be seen to be fully appreciated. The little girls, whose generous impulses prompted the effort, as a means of relieving the wants of a very destitute family, whose necessitites were brought to their notice, deserve much credit for the success of their entertainment. It cleared for their object something over $8, and gave to all present a very happy cleared for their object something over $3, and gave to all present a very happy afternoon. The names of the girls should be mentioned, that they may be encouraged in their good works, and stand as an example to others. Only "Seven Little Workers"—Misses Olga Rehling, Dora Dickens, Lillie Booker, Lucy Christian, Annie Branch, Withers Wright, and Eille Holmes—but who can tell how farreaching their works may prove?

reaching their works may prove? The Helping Circle of King's Daughters, of Trinity church, will give a "Silver Tea" to-morrow evening, from 8 to at the residence of Mr. T. Wiley vis, No. 2700 east Broad street. A Davis, very attractive programme—consisting of vocal and instrumental music, by Misses Carr and Davis, and Mr. Frank Cunningthroughout the evening.

The proceeds of this entertainment will used to relieve the poor of the East End.

Friday early was hardly a promising day for any enterprise, which required a walk upon the streets, but the clouds lifted in time for the Founders'-Day din ner, at No. 809 east Main street, to be well-patronized. As usual, it was both a financial success, and a pleasure for those in charge.

Miss Maud Blair's Shakespearean class and Mrs. Caskie Cabell's current events should never be omitted in mentioning the social happenings, both being large factors alike to the enjoyment and profit of the week.

Closely following the ball and reception of the 18th and 22d, there is a shadow of such proportions that only a big social event could cast.

visiting Miss Anna Boykin. Mrs. James Allison will give a handsome entertainment one evening this week at her new residence, on Franklin Junior fashionable society is in a flut-ter of expectancy over the prospect of the "Minuet Ball," which will be given by Miss Mary Thaw very soon.

Mrs. F. F. Sterrett, of Augusta county, is visiting Mrs. J. Taylor Ellyson, No. 19 east Franklin street. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bosher are in , where they will remain for seve-

Mrs. J. Taylor Ellyson and Mrs. F. F. Crump spent several days in Washington

Miss Ethel Hill Slater entertained at Miss Ethel Hill Slater entertained at her home, No. 14 north Laurel street, a few friends Friday evening, at a celebrity party, in honor of her guest, Miss Luia Barham, of Newsome, Va. The three prizes were won by Miss Luia Barham, Mr. W. W. Parker, and Mr. Downing.

Mrs. Cornelia Burton Leslie, of Cleve nd. O., will be the guest of the Misses Bodeker next week. Miss Mary Zollinger, who has been the guest of Miss Hester Tabb, left Friday for her home, in Baltimore. Miss Mary Taylor has returned to her home, in Petersburg, after a visit to Miss Mary Jackson, of this city.

Miss Mamie Boykin, of No. 215 south Third street, left Tuesday for North Carolina, where she will spend several weeks with friends. Mrs. Rufus Gillette, of Danville, Ill., is the guest of Mrs. Charles E. Doyle, No. 315 Park avenue. Mrs. and Miss McGuire, who have been visiting Dr. Edward McGuire, left for their home, in Berryville, Wednesday.

The next meeting of the Fortnightly Whist Club will be at the residence of Mrs. George Ettinger, on east Broad Baltimore.

A. Oldfield Brown, of New York, | at the Woman's Club Monday aftern Mrs. W. Russell Robinson is the gues

of Mrs. Legh R. Page, 512 west Franklin

Mrs. James Nelson is in Baltimore, visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. Sparks Melton. Mrs. D. W. Flickwir and Miss Goss are the guests of Mrs. Logan, 901 west Grace

Mrs. Malvern Patterson's informal "at home" on Wednesday afternoon was a delightful as it was informal, which large number of callers can certify. Miss Robecca Storrs returned from Bal-

CAME NEAR BEING BADLY HURT. Constable Samuel and Mr. Frayser Thrown from a Jumper.

Constable Samuel, of Henrico, and Mr. W. B. Frayser, of the County Board of Supervisors, narrowly escaped serious injury yesterday morning. The two gentlemen were en route to the court-house in Mr. Samuel's jumper, and when near the works of the Virginia and Atlan Fertilizer Company the horse attached to the jumper shied and pitched one wheel of the vehicle over a slight embankment. This caused the vehicle to upset, and both ham, Jr., and recitations by Miss Leahey men were thrown to the ground, and Mr. Eggleston-will be rendered Samuel fell under the wheels, and Samuel fell under the wheels, and Mr. Frayser landed some distance from He was quickly on his feet and caught the horse, which started to run. _als prompt action is all that saved Mr. Samuel from being dragged by the horse, as one foot was caught in the wheel. Both men escaped with bruises, but Mr. Samuel's clothes were covered with mud, and he presented a sorry spectacle when he reached Fulton.

Magistrate G. W. Thomas had before him yesterday afternoon the cases of Emanuel Neal, Joe Carter, Lee Winston, Ransom Clements, Sam. Davis, and Wirt Jackson, which were continued until the These negro youths 17th instant. These negro youths are charged with breaking into cars of the Chesapeake and Ohio railway and stealing flour. It is alleged that the cars were robbed on the 23d, and again on the 29th of January. The value of the flour some of the boys are charged with stealing individually is as much as $58. Mr. Willlam H. Beveridge has been retained as counsel by all but Davis.

Miss Nina Taliaferro, of Gloucester, is THE BIRTHDAY OF WASHINGTON. Jr. O. U. A. M. and Daughters of Liberty Will Celebrate It. Arrangements have been made for monster demonstration on Washington's Birthday, Monday, February 22d, by the Junior Mechanics and the Daughters of

It is expected that the occasion will be to the same treatment. McCulloch was marked by the largest gathering of the membership and friends of these patriotic organizations ever held in this city. onghold of the orders south of Pennsylvania, and the present demonstration will be a very interesting one. attractive programme of exercises An attractive programme of exercises has been mapped out, the feature of which will be the address to be delivered by Rev. H. M. Wharton, of Baltimore. Several prominent ministers will take part in the entertainment, as also will several to the entertainment. some of the most talented musicians

Supreme Court of Appeals.

Chesapeake Classified Building Asso-ciation vs. Coleman, etc. Argued by W. W. Old. Esq., for appellant, and C. W. Sams and C. W. Coleman, Esqs., for ap-pellees, and submitted. Twitchell vs. Sheriff of Henrico, Plaintiff discharged from custody.

The Lecture of Rev. Mr. Ayres.

The Lecture of Rev. Mr. Ayres.

The lecture on "Fine Arts" at the First Baptist church on Thursday evening, the 18th. by Rev. E. E. Ayres, blds fair to be a most delightful occasion. The fact that his lectures have been so greatly enjoyed and commended by some of the most cultivated audiences in this country promises well for the pleasure and instruction of all who hear him.

In connection with the lecture will be given a choice musical programme, in which Mr. Ayres will be assisted by Miss Maude Porter, Miss Effie Cofer, and others.

The Actives Meet and Adjourn.

The Clay-Ward Actives were to have held a regular meeting at Belvidere Hall last night. The body convened promptly. Vice-President Henry L. Carter filling the chair, but owing to the death of the mather of the president, Mr. Evan Snead, the club adjourned.

Miss Eleanor Curtis, of Boston, who has been visiting Miss Lutic Pleasants, of this city, was called home yesterday by the sudden death of her father. She left on the 7 o'clock train over the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac railroad. Miss Judith Deane is visiting friends in There was the usual fortnightly tea

CARE FOR THE NEEDY

WHAT MANCHESTER IS DOING TO RELIEVE THE POOR.

A Father Fined for Beating His Child and a Dog Ordered to Be most sceptical of the city's liberality and next Sunday. care for her needy. The supplies, under the supervision of Mr. H. A. Jordon and Mr. W. Cox, consist of sugar, coffee, meat, fish, flour, meal, clothing, and other necessary article. Since the commissary was opened, last Thursday morning, for grandmothers' the first time, more than thirty families have been helped.

During the past few days many herds city and over the Free bridge. The aim ties beyond has been to get their cattle into the Richmond markets before Monday morning, when the quarantine law goes into effect again. Chesterfield cattle can then be sent to the Richmond markets only by rail. SENTENCED TO DEATH. Mayor Maurice's court-room was filled yesterday with spectators, who came to hear the case of trial for life. This was the continued case of Mr. George Payne, who was charged with keeping a vicious dog. The testimony seemed to his Honor clear and strong, and the canine was ordered to be killed. It will be remembered that this is the dog which so se verely bit Fitzhugh Lee, the little son of Mr. Joseph L. Lee, a few days ago. The little fellow of illustrious name appeared in court with his face all covered with plasters. He said he was playing tops in the street, and the dog bit him through the fence.

Mr. Payne said he didn't know anything about this case, but the boys have been annoying his wife by pestering his dog. A number of witnesses testified that the dog was a bad animal, while others had never seen him bite any one. An appeal was taken from the Mayor's

James McCulloch was in court, charged with beating his little daughters. children were overcome with grief and shame. The oldest one said she supported herself, and that her father did nothing for her. She went to a dance, and when her father found it out he carried her home and heat her with a star. The home and beat her with a strap. The smaller child said she had been subjected Messrs. Albright & Mittendorf, who are rganizations ever held in this city.

Richmond, with its sister city, has street, were summoned for running teams without a license. Mr. Mittendorf stated to the Court that he thought it was customary for contractors to use their teams in doing city work without having to get out a license. The Mayor did not so un-derstand it, and fined the concern $2.50 on each cart that they were using.

FUNERAL OF MRS. PUCKETT. The funeral of Mrs. Joseph Puckett, who died last Thursday night at her home, in Chesterfield county, took place from Hopewell church yesterday at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Puckett was widely known in this city, and her death is much re-Mr. Caskle Adams, a cousin of Mr. J. Q. Adams, of this city, died at Robious Priday night at 12 o'clock. His funeral will take place from the residence this will take place from the residence this afternoon at 1 o'clock, and the interment will be in the family burying-ground. He was in the 32d year of his age.

The members of the Fire Department met last night in their hall and discussed at length arrangements for the entertainment to be given on next Friday evening in Leader Hall by the popular Moore family in Leader Hall by the popular Moore family. The tickets were given out to the members of the department, who will vie with each other in their sale. The pro-evening, the 19th instant, at the residence of Captain and Mrs. James A. Lipscomb, corner of Nineteenth and Maury streets, under the auspices of the ladies of the Earnest Workers of Central Methodist Episcopal church. The proceeds will be devoted to the new church fund.

A Colonial party will be given Friday granted.

THE POINTER.

Personal and Other Items.

A visit to the storeroom on Hull street which is provided for the poor of Manchester is sufficient to convince the chester is sufficient.

BALDWIN & BROWN, Opposite Old Market, 1557 East Main Street, Richmond, Va.

adles, who will be attired in their great-

SERVICES IN THE CHURCHES. of cattle have been driven through this in his own pulpit; subject, "Seeing the were: Messrs, Louis Governator, Inseen; or, the Uplifting Power of the Singer, Arthur Griffin, John H.

music for the morning service:
1. Voluntary-Venite. Deum Laudamus. 3. Offertory-Sweet Be Thy Mercy. 4. Nunc Dimittis. PERSONALS AND BRIEFS. Mr. B. F. Gresham continues quite 111 at his home, No. 401 Cowardin avenue. Mr. O. O. Owens was in the city Friday

a business trip. Mr. J. Wiley is in the city, the guest of Postmaster D. The Little Strivers of the Presbyterian church will have a Valentine Tea Mon-day night at the residence of Mr. Frank

The Hustings Court will commence the February term on Monday. L. Adamson has returned from Fitzgerald, on Hull street.

Magistrate Williams and Constable Beadles, both of Hanover county, were in Yesterday evening about 4 o'clock travel on the Perry-Street line was delayed about two hours. The cause lay in the breaking down on Seventh street of a large wagon of the Standard Oil Com pany, which completely crossed both tracks. Until finally the ponderous load Causes Argued in the U. S. Court. The United States Circuit Court of Appeals met yesterday morning pursuant to adjournment at 9:30 o'clock. Goff, Simonton, and Brawley were pre-vs. Elias E. Reis to dismiss the appeal of appellants was argued by E. Ran-dolph Williams and George Whitelock for the motion, and Arthur Stuart against. The motion was granted and decree en-

E. Randolph Williams, of Richmond, was admitted as an attorney after subscribing the usual oath. The case of the Yellow Poplar Lumber Company vs. John Paul, a petition for mandamus against Judge Paul to show cause why the order of the Circuit Court entered by him on January 20, 1897, in the cause of the Yellow Poplar Lumber Company vs. S. F. Chapman, should not be modified or vacated. Order to show cause issued, returnable April 5th.

ceeds of the evening will be used to perfect the laddles in the way of rubber coats and hats and boots.

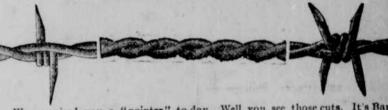

Evich, administrator, &c. Petinon appellant to hear cause on original papers and records filed in this cause on ground of informa paupers; petition Steam-tug Glendale et al., vs. P. B.

The Court adjourned subject to the call of the president.

under the auspices of the ladies of the Earnest Workers of Central Methodist Episcopal church. The proceeds will be devoted to the new church fund.

An elegant programme has been arranged, and each one depositing a silver coin at the door will be entitled to ice cream and cake.

The guests will be received by George and Martha Washington, assisted by the Odd-Fellows and Druids.

THE NEWS OF FULTON.

Mother-Hubbard Ball a Success Rev. W. E. Hurt, pastor of Stockton-Street Baptist church, will fill his pulpit at both services to-day. The preacher's subject at the morning service will be. "Estrangement from Church," and in the evening "Society at very street attendance enjoyed themselves very of the farmers in Chesterfield and coun-The monthly meeting of the Sunday-School Association of Richmond and Manchester will be held at 3:30 P. M. masque, it was a beautiful sight. At 9 Manchester will be held at 3:30 P. M.

Rev. J. A. Spencer, pastor of the Cowardin-Avenue Christian church, will fill his pulpit both morning and night. His text in the morning will be "The Words of the Life." At night his subject will be "Obedience."

Rev. W. W. Lear, of Central church, and Rev. S. C. Hatcher, of Denny-Street, Richmond, will exchange pulpits to-day at 11 A. M. At night Mr. Lear will preach in his own pulpit; subject, "Seeing the" were: Messrs, Louis Governator, A. O.

Ed. O'Keefe, John Banlard, John Wag-ner, Charles Frayser, James Lumsden, Frank Sheridan, William Roach, Robert Wortham, Richard Morris, Frank Meyers, and George Meyers. The choir has arranged the following Already candidates are out for the places in the Board of Supervisors, both in Fairfield and Varina districts in Fairfield and Varina distrets. Mr. Hechler, the present incumbent from Fairfield, will have plenty of opposition. So far, Mr. Charles Turner and two others are opposed to him. Mr. W. B. Frayser, who represents the Varina peo-

Frayser, who represents the Varina people on board, will, in all probability, have opposition. In fact, it is said that the woods are full of candidates.

The aged mother of Mr. James Fussell, a prominent farmer of Varina, died on Thursday evening after a lingering filness. The funeral will take place from the residence this afternoon. The deceased was for many years a faithful member of the Four-Mile Creek Baptist Mr. Oscar B. Harris returned to Miller's School yesterday after a pleasant stay in the city.
Magistrate Williams and Constable
Readles both of Hanover county, were in church.

present, and enjoyed themselves to the early morning hours. The handsome parfors were handsomely decorated with art flowers, ferns, and evergreen. At about 12 o'clock an elegant collation was served, after which the merry party resumed dancing.

Mr. L. C. Ratcliffe and wife, who have tracks. Until finally the ponderous load been living with Mr. McElroy, in Varina, was removed, passage for cars was impossible. Rev. J. R. Harrison, pastor of Fulton Baptist church, has returned from Char-lottesville, where he had been holding a revival, and will preach to his people at the usual hours to-day. Rev. W. A. Laughon, in Fulton, who has been quite sick, is improving.

Miss Ella Wood is very ill at the realdence of her mother, Mrs. Dunkley, Mr. Eddie R. Mitchell was the successful contestant for the place as sub-stitute in Engine Company No 8. There were many applicants for the place. Mrs. Mack died at her home here Fri-day. Arrangements for the funeral will e announced later. Mrs. Hugh McGuire, of Seventh street, who has been ill, is convalescent.

Mr. T. J. Enright, of Louisiana street, has recovered from an attack of illness of some duration.

Bishop Newton will preach at the Wed-

Bishop Newton will preach at the Weddeil-Memorial chapel, on Denny street, this morning at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. Talley's class of the Fulton Baptist Sunday-school will give a winter picnic on Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock, at No. 286 east Marshall street.

Mrs. S. Blonkinship, of Turkey Island, is visiting Mrs. James Riddell, on State street.

Mr. W. W. Turner continues quite ill at his residence, on Williamsburg avenue. Mrs. Yakley, of Henrico, who has been very sick with the grip, is improving.

Since the arrival in this city of the little Mahone child, who was bitten at Hewletts by a mad-cat, a number of madstones have been located here. A lady living at No. 815 north Twenty-fourth street is said to have one, and it is stated that there is another at Mr. Harrison's, on Louisiana street, in Fulton.

And The Pill.